

"Less We Forget"

Vietnam – Why

Does anyone know where our servicemen have gone
Or what they have done to be treated so wrong,
They were asked to fight not knowing why
As they did their job from water, land, and sky.

When sent to war to do the right thing
They didn't seem to please the center ring,
Our leaders, the almighty and high
Left these servicemen hang out to dry.

After all of these years
They are still trying to hide their many tears
Even time will not allow the wounds to heal
As they were treated as a low, lowly eel.

It was with depressed, and over due need,
That they pushed through this leadership greed.
Now let us not forget what we had in the past
It may help the future to do better at last.

This was written to celebrate the birth of the
